SOUTHPORT HIGH SCHOOL
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

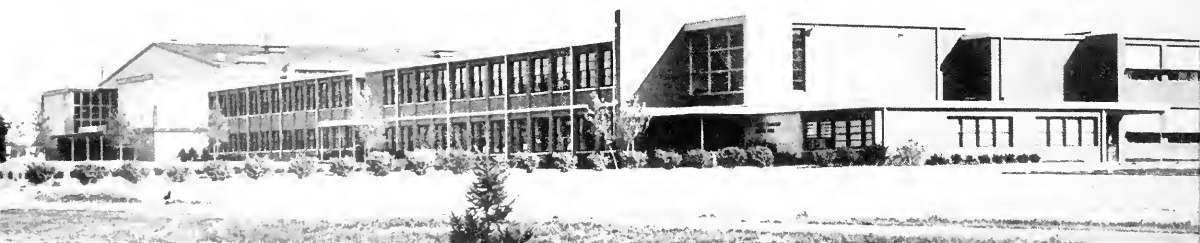

From Our

Our senior class officers Buzz Hickman, president; Jim Hohlt, vice-president; Parry Pasch, secretary-treasurer, with Mr. Edwin Krause, class sponsor, realize that the last year for the class of '62 is about to reach the finale.

Home of Champions

Point of View

CLOSED

From this threshold, Mr. Leedy often observes everyday life at S.H.S.

Opening the door to a new way of life at S.H.S. are the freshman class officers: Phil Wright, secretary-treasurer; John Hickman, vice-president; Tom Ryan, president; and Mrs. Pearson, class sponsor.

Our life at Southport is continually evolving. The only way to stop time is to record the past in memories, for as seniors become alumni, as underclassmen become upperclassmen, there will be new faces and new classes. From this point of view, we immediately begin to review the important facets of our life at S.H.S. Those of us who are planning for college are grateful for Southport's high rating, both academic and social. We proudly recall the many football and basketball games in which we participated in our meager way as boosters of OUR teams.

Now and later we shall point with pride to the many honors and trophies won by our classmates. We shall relive the dances and thank silently the many unknown figures who convert the concrete gymnasium into a glittering, abstract mirage. Life at S.H.S. with its history and traditions fills, from freshmen to senior, with a sense of unity. As each of us in turn proceeds silently along the aisles, clad in cap and gown, we will recapture these scenes—each of us from his own point of view.

"From Our Point Of View"

Around The School

Southport High School is more than a mass of brick and mortar. It is a society in itself composed of many people from all walks of life. It is a society which helps these people to grow mentally, socially, and physically. Southport's foundation is not of cement, but of hearts and spirits of students and faculty members, past and present. Its cornerstone is made up of school spirit and pride. This pride enables Southport students to rank high in any field in which they endeavor or compete.

Bob Cameron, Patti Walker, and Janet Adams join S.H.S. Seniors to brighten the Christmas season on Annual Senior Dress-up Day.

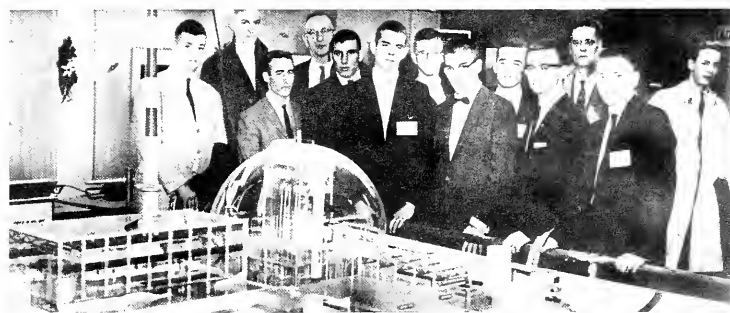

Sue Hiatt and Mr. Theil inspect some of the landscaping made possible through the Student Council to beautify our school grounds.

Mr. Leedy mingles freely with the students in friendly conversation.

We profoundly regret the resignation of Mr. Leedy, for we feel that we have lost an outstanding educator who has led S.H.S. through many successful years. Faculty and students alike extend to Mr. Leedy best wishes for happiness in retirement.

Senior Joe Daniels represented Southport at the National Youth Conference on the Atom held in Chicago during the month of November.

The Way We Look At Honors

Names-Games-Aims: It is these three words that sum up the people, sports, and activities of Southport High School. As seniors, we reflect on the gnarled and craggy path that has led us unceasingly upward. The path itself is lined with the familiar names and faces of people whom we have known, with the prizes of victory which we have nobly won, and with the honors and achievements which we have received in working faithfully toward our aim and goal.

Mr. Krause congratulates Joe Daniels, finalist in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

Jane Robertson, senior, exhibits the plaque presented to her as the second place award in the Dental Division of the Regional Science Fair.

For the second consecutive year, Dave Frick, senior, won outstanding speaking honors at the Purdue Legislative Assembly.

D.A.R. good citizen, Judi Utterback, was chosen on the basis of personality ratings for dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Barbara Kappmeyer, junior, who won the title "Miss Baton Twirler of Indiana" traveled to Galveston, Texas, and placed second in the national contest.

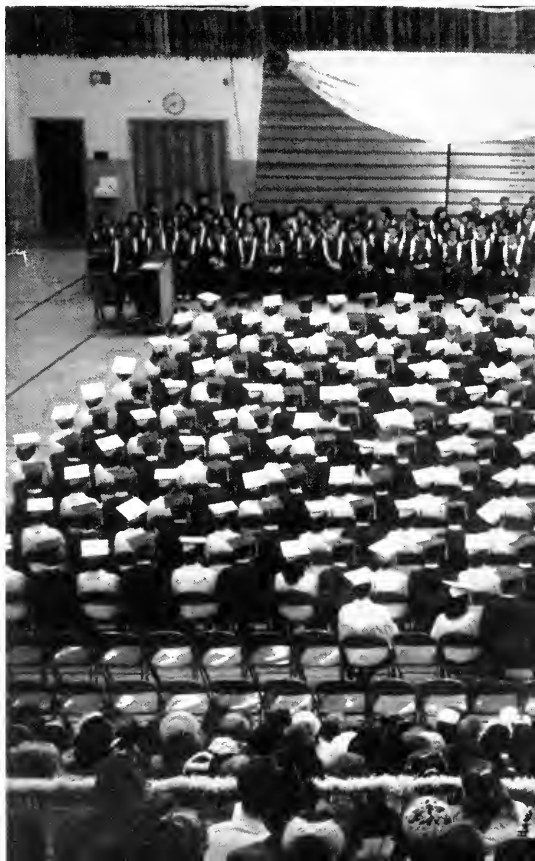

And Commencement

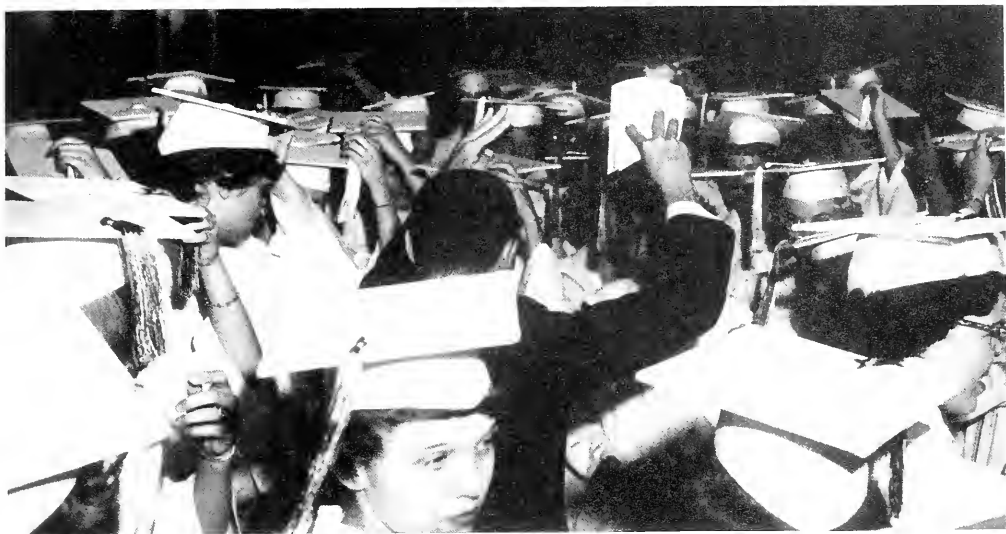

Behind us lies the indisputable and unforgettable past with all of its grand victories and beneficial education, but before us lies the never ending future with its dutiful promise of even richer victories and higher achievements. We have been a part of a great tradition of a great school; therefore, let us walk briskly up the interminable road of life that forever leads to the future and give honor and respect to those who have given an abundant assistance in our perpetual search for knowledge.

Southport has opened many new doors for us; we must enter each and find our place in life.

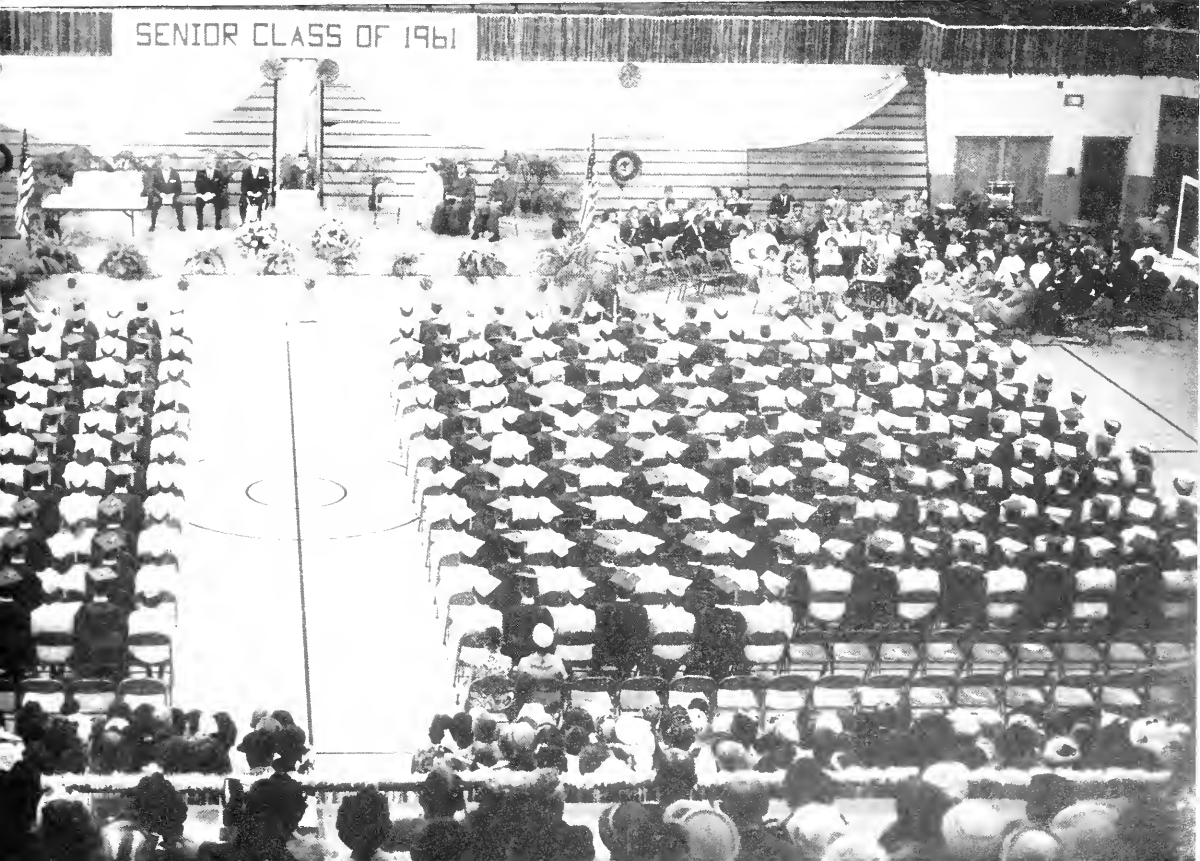

Carol Grube represents her class and Southport by attaining the highest academic rank and the title of valedictorian.

Seniors make last minute preparations for the big moment.

Mixed emotions, the joy of conquest, and the sadness of departure.

The debate team members prepare and discuss notes for an approaching meet. We are indeed proud of them for scoring many impressive victories during the season.

In the Home Economics Department, senior Donna Pittman receives the Betty Crocker Award from Mrs. Smith for the highest score on a test given to senior girls by a division of General Mills, Inc.

Janice LaFlamme scans her notes before the final contest in the Voice of Democracy competition.

Keen Competition

In the Trouble Shooting contest, Southport's boys again proved we are "tops" by detecting all the mechanical defects in their car and driving to win the trophy.

Jane Robertson, Sandy Rutz, and Judy Nicholson were awarded a $100 grant by the Indiana Heart Association for their experiments with rats, rabbits, and cockroaches to find the effects of cholesterol in arteriosclerosis.

Patty Pasch and Kathy Ball, elected state FBLA president and reporter, respectively, later attended the National Convention in Washington, D.C.

"From Our Point Of View"

The Social Whirl

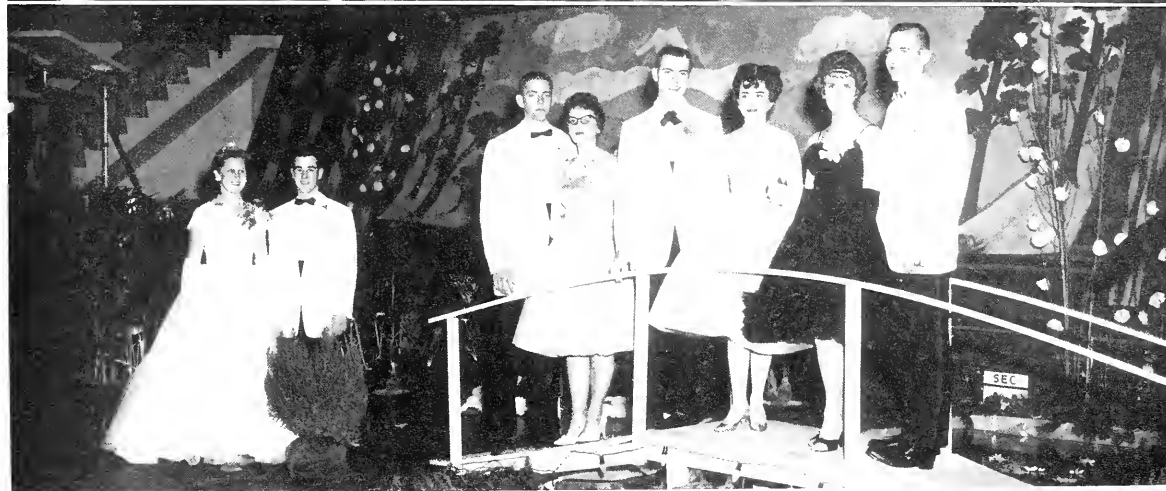

The girls pin "corsages" on their dates before attending the Turnabout.

The old saying "all work and no play" certainly doesn't apply to Southport students. There are five dances held during the course of the year. The Sweater Swirl is held in the fall amid autumn leaves and pumpkins, and the Christmas Dance highlights the exciting yule season. The annual Turnabout Twirl is anxiously awaited by the boys as the girls make use of the saying, "Turnabout is fair play." But the event of the year is the Junior-Senior Prom when the juniors bid farewell to the seniors. To close the social whirl, the May Dance is held in honor of the spring athletes.

Preparing for the festivities of the Christmas dance, Winter Wonderland, are seniors Kathy Euler, Dick Rodebaugh, Steve Schoultz, Janice Miller, Steve Higgs, and Judi Fox.

Juniors and seniors enjoy the beauty of the Japanese garden that was the setting of the Junior-Senior Prom, Sayonara.

May queens swing on a rainbow Sue Wasson, senior, was chosen for service; Sharon Ford, junior, for her personality; Marianne Solomon, sophomore, for her beauty; and Luanne Sims, freshman, for her friendliness.

The senior girls, keeping with tradition, present the finale of the Talent Show with songs of praise to S.H.S.

With all acts aboard, the showboat "Cardinal Belle," which set the stage for the Talent Show, sailed along leaving loads of talent to be carried by the waves to the audience on the shore.

Varied Student

Each year on Easter Sunday, people from our community churches come together to commemorate the Resurrection with an Easter Sunrise Service. Various students, many choirs, and the orchestra participate in this event to make it one of the most inspiring presentations of the school.

Norma Boyd and Terry Volpp participated with various other students in the Nativity Scene created for the Christmas convocation Themes such as "Let's Grind Up the Redskin Peanuts" and many more adorned the homecoming floats. Since weeks of preparation accompanied this gala event, it was the most successful homecoming in Southport's history.

Productions

The crowning of Homecoming Queen Andrea Deever climaxed the evening's festivities. With her court of Kathy Ball, Barbara Kappmeyer, Pam Young, Nancy Howard, and Patty Pasch, she happily reigned not only over the Homecoming but also the Sweater Swirl.

First-year typists pound the keyboard to perfect skills of rhythm, speed and accuracy while performing daily timed writing exercises.

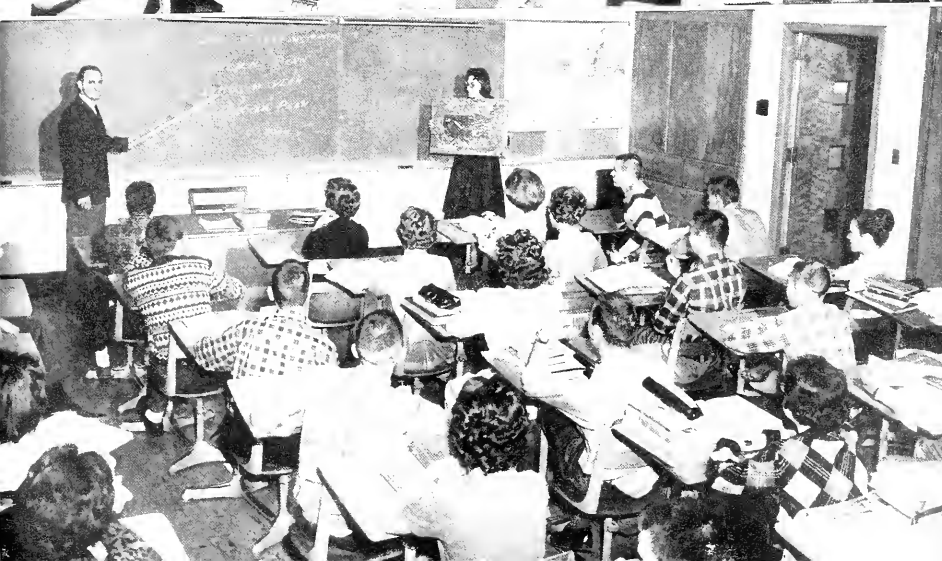

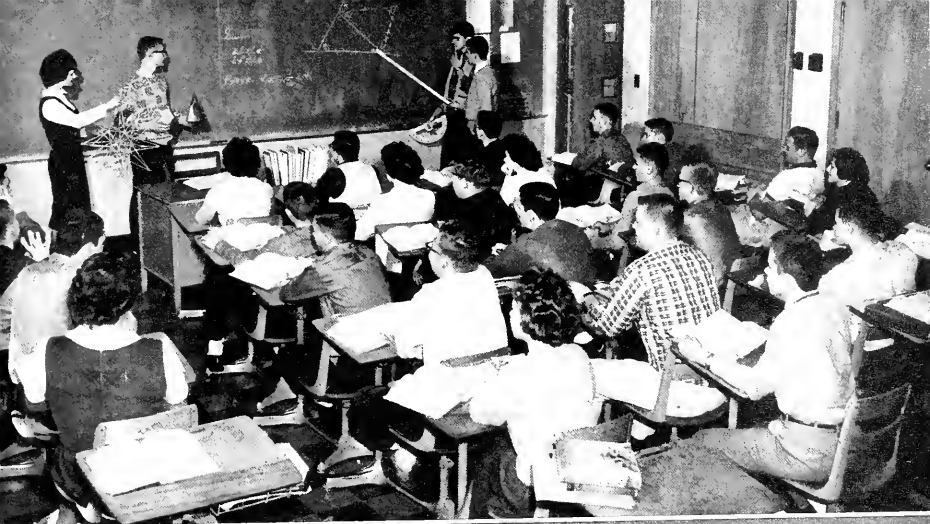

"From Our Point Of View"

The Three R's And More

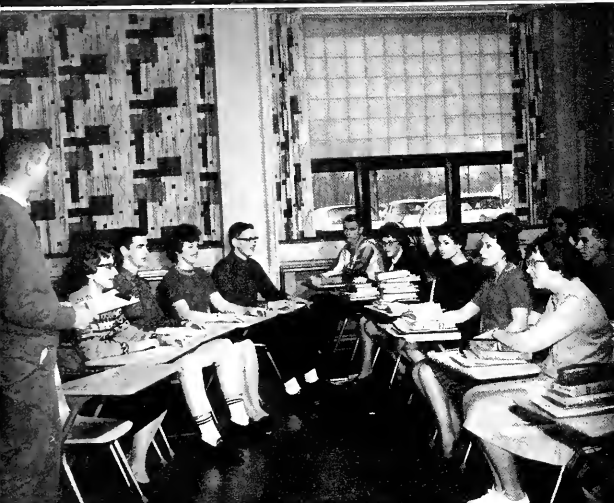

College preparatory, home economics, commercial, industrial arts, agriculture and general are the six courses of study offered at Southport from which a student may choose the course that will best meet his needs and abilities. There are special, advanced courses offered in many fields for those student who wish to pre-prepare themselves for special fields. A student may also gain valuable practical experience through his work as physical education assistant, office girl, cadet teacher, or as teacher's secretary.

"Sit lux" (Let there be knowledge) is the motto of the Latin classes. This year's enrollment of Latin students is the largest in the history of Southport High School.

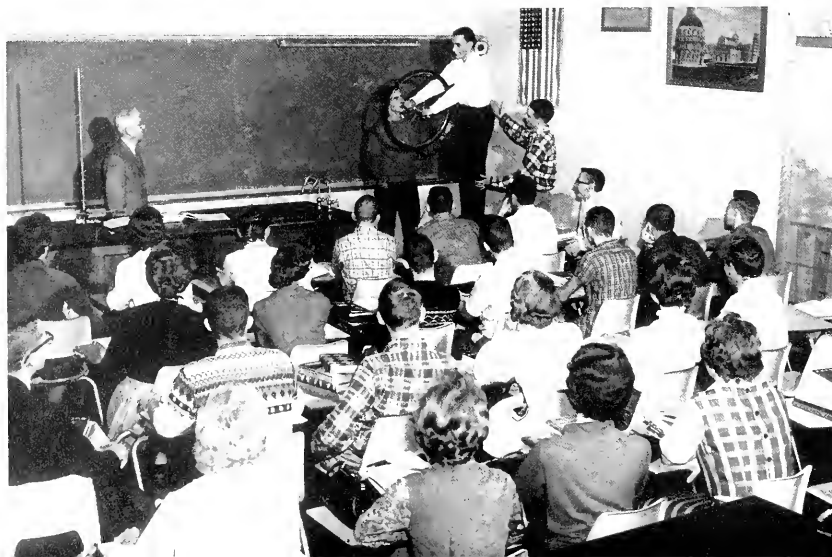

Familiar
scenes

Panel discussions set off explosive arguments at times on such subjects as integration, juvenile delinquency, and teenage problems.

A demonstration of centrifugal force is just one of the many expositions that take place in a physics classroom.

More Serious Moments

In shop, mechanical drawing, and home economics, boys learn to use their hands as well as their minds and receive training as future carpenters, architects, and husbands.

The art classes add a touch of beauty to the school with their exhibits, Christmas murals, and decorations.

A typical day in "Our Town" is depicted in the households of the Gibbs and Webb's.

Eagerly awaiting their debut on the stage, the cast of the Senior Play appear in costume after the dress rehearsal.

Other members of the cast include Gladys Altmann, Betty Eggerding, Jeri Fitzwater, Mary Gilmore, Lucy Giorgianna, Karen Hollingsworth, Sharon Klatte, Bob Lewsader, June Linkle, Christine Lowe, Jerry Lynch, Sharon Resner, Sandy Sells, Carol Short, Ann Trimpe, and Judith Utterback. The student director was Karen Shepard; the prompter, Kay Short, and the sponsor, Mrs. Kathleen Ritchie.

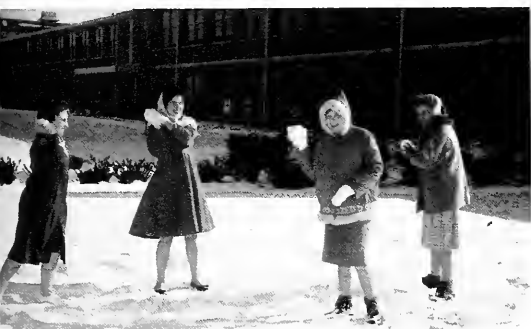

As various activities go on about "Our Town", Emily and George, the sweethearts, are upstairs doing their lessons.

ALL WORK AND SOME PLAY

Scholars Dianne Todd and Joe Daniels rank second and third respectively in their senior class of three hundred and eighty-five students. Both will attend Purdue University this fall.

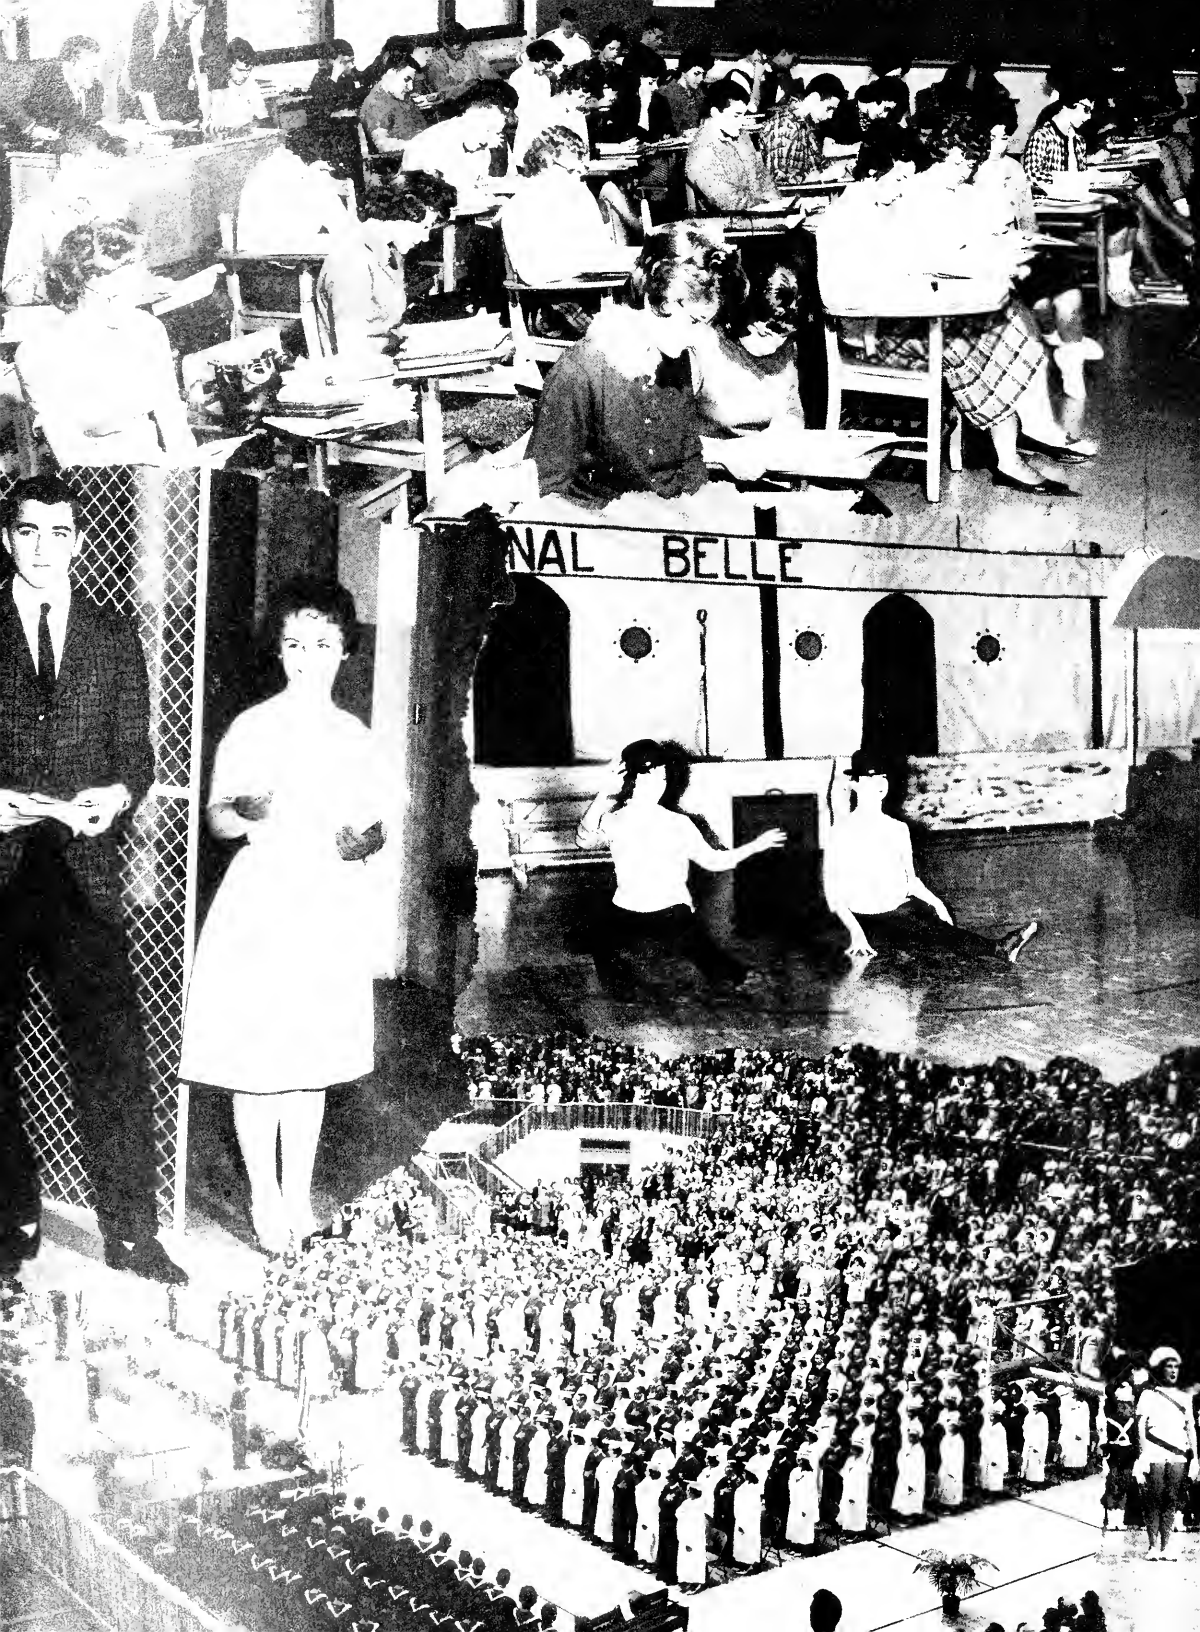

"FROM OUR POINT OF VIEW"

Some students having fun in a snowball fight after school.

After hours of study, reading, and recitation in a determined attempt to receive that coveted diploma, we add variety to our academic lives with social activities ranging from the decorous Junior-Senior Prom to a lively snowball battle after school. From our point of view school is a pleasant mixture of fun and learning

PEOPLE

Dr. Glenn, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Leedy, principal of Southport High School, decide many policies that contribute to the successful functioning of our high school.

THE PRINCIPAL'S POINT OF VIEW

We want Southport High School to have a happy, wholesome environment in which our young men and women are exposed to and take part in such experiences as will enable them to become good American Citizens. The above involves getting their lessons to the best of their ability as well as adequate participation at the journey's end with grades commensurate with their ability. They are happy in doing. It further involves learning to get along with your teachers and living peaceably and happily with those about you.

Those who go through the four years at Southport and arrive at the journey's end with grades commensurate with their ability, and with a disposition of friendliness toward others may well consider their high school days a success.

Miss Penrod

Mr. Theil

The Administration

The success of Southport High School depends upon the careful planning of the administrative leaders. Mr. Leedy, principal; Dr. Glenn, Superintendent of Schools; Miss Penrod, dean of girls; Mr. Theil and Mr. Ratliff, dean of boys and vice principals; and Mr. Krause, head guidance counselor, aided by Mrs. Pearson, Mr. Brown, Mr. Morgan, and Mr. Robbins, guidance counselors for the freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior classes respectively, all work together toward one goal - one well functioning unit - Southport High School.

Mr. Ratliff

This past year, the guidance department has grown to include a counselor for each class. Mrs. Pearson, freshman class sponsor, ably guides the freshman; Mr. Brown, sophomore class sponsor, the sophomores; Mr. Morgan, the juniors; and Mr. Krause, senior class sponsor, and Mr. Robbins, the seniors.

LESTER ROUTH

This year our school received a great loss in the death of Mr. Lester Routh, one of our ablest teachers. Knowing that his first responsibility was to the welfare of his students, Mr. Routh never faltered in his duty — to equip his pupils as best he knew how to be good, successful citizens. While he is no longer with us physically, we are certain that his memory and, what would be more important to him, the good that he did will go on and on.

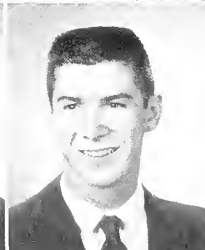

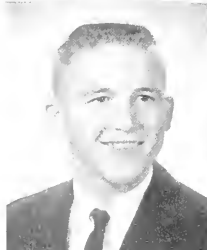

Class Of 1962

The Class of 62 look back on their years at Southport as years of fun, education, and experience. Academic awards, homecoming, South Central Conference football champs, sectional basketball champs, and other titles won in the various other sporting events throughout our final year are just a few of the many goals we have achieved. Along with Mr. Krause are our class officers Buzz Hickman, president; Jim Hohlt, vice-president; Patty Pasch, secretary-treasurer. With the help and guidance of these people, our senior year has been brought to a very successful conclusion; a year we shall never forget.

GARY SCHOONOVER

It was with shock and regret that we of the senior class learned of the death of our classmate, Gary Schoonover. Not only was he a friend to many of us, but he was an example of courage for all of us to emulate. We may be confident that his memory will stay with his classmates long after those of many other school acquaintances will have faded and vanished.

Juniors

The day of expectation has arrived and the Junior Class officers, Louie Dampier, president; Dick Prosser, vice-president; Georgia James, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Lucille Miller, class sponsor, cooperate to fulfill the anticipated desires of S. H. S. juniors.

This class has made an impressive record throughout the 1961-1962 school years and has bestowed many honors upon the name of Southport. The Prom, the rings, homecoming queens, floats, and academics are only a few of the many activities which combine to make this class one of loyalty, spirit, and accomplishment.

The Sophomore class officers, Terry Ryker, president; Danny Fleetwood, vice-president; and Carol Eastridge, secretary-treasurer assisted by their sponsor Mr. Brown, have led their class to a very successful year.

They have consistently had a larger number of names on the honor roll each grade period than any other class and have actively participated in the sports programs and on committees.

ACTIVITIES

Standing: Denny O'Neal, Beth Witte, Karen Salge, Karen Meyer, Sue Margedant, Trudy Hickman, Karen Moore, Jody Cowden, Sue Hiatt, Bill Linson, Charlene Mason, Sara Hunt, Carolyn Vornehm, and Sue Kehrein.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council fulfills a double function as the organization which represents the students to the administration and the administration to the students. One must consider both in order to appreciate their work in improving our school; for understanding and cooperation are two-way propositions. The officers who coordinate the Council's efforts are Dave Frick, president; Rex Joseph, vice-president; Andrea Deever, secretary; and Janice LaFlamme, treasurer.

To Attain

NATIONAL THESPIANS SOCIETY

Spanish Club

Si, si, senior and seniorita. Would you like to learn more about the people, customs, history, and ideals of our "south-of-the-border" neighbors? If so, participate in the Spanish Club; the activities this year include everything from the breaking of the pinata to the dances of a lady from Peru. One of the main celebrations was the banquet at Christmas featuring a Peruvian woman who danced and discussed educational problems in her country. The officers wearing the native dress of South America are president, Vicki Davis; vice-president, Fred Fleetwood; secretary-treasurer, Sandy Sells. The sponsor of the club is Mr. Rodriguez.

Beginning Latin Club

This picture portrays a familiar scene in the days of the Romans, for chariot races were one of the most popular forms of sport and entertainment. Appearing with some of the members are the officers: Keith Smith, consul; Pam Young, pro-consul; Barbara Bradford, aedile; and John Rhobard, quaester. This club known by the latin name Sodality is sponsored by Mrs. Majors; the members are affiliated with the Junior Classical League, a national Latin organization.

Beginning Math Club

In this world of challenge, we find mathematics becoming ever more popular and more necessary. The Beginning Math Club increases the knowledge of its members in the field of math and teaches new methods of solving problems. Sponsored by Mr. Fowler, the club cultivates the ideas of the members and encourages them to continue their study. Each year the club takes a field trip in the spring. This year they also played a game similar to television's College Bowl. It was good experience and taught each student more about math. Anyone who is taking a mathematical subject may join the club.

Medicii Club

The need for better qualified and more experienced people in any field is constantly in demand. The Medicii Club, sponsored by Miss Penrod, acquaints the students with the needs of medical work and stimulates their interest in the medical profession. Those who are interested in this branch of science must maintain a "C+" average to qualify for Medicii membership. It is hoped that through this organization the students will wish to continue their study to become skilled doctors, nurses, and technicians. Officers are Mark Folkening, president; Louis Zickler, vice-president; and Jane Robertson, secretary-treasurer.

Phy-Chem Club

What a shock! Mr. Ellis Robins, sponsor of the Phy-Chem Club, is demonstrating the modern Van de Graaff generator which sends electricity as high as three thousand volts across the gap between the metallic spheres to the officers, Tom Sawyer, president; Tom Brandenburg, vice-president, and Carol Grube, secretary-treasurer. Through the reports and experiments presented in their monthly meetings, the members attempt to learn more about the major advances in physics and chemistry. The club also provided safety goggles for the chemistry classes this year.

Biology Club

Going on educational field trips, having guest speakers, and conducting many varied and interesting programs provide an excellent source of furthering the scientific interests of Biology Club members. To become a member of this organization, one must be enrolled in beginning biology and be recommended by his biology teacher. Each member is required to conduct a part of at least one program during the year. Biology Club officers are Raymond Daringer, president; Barbara Graff, vice-president; Christine Hancock, secretary; Dick Powell, treasurer; Donna Wheatley and Doug Brooks, publicity.

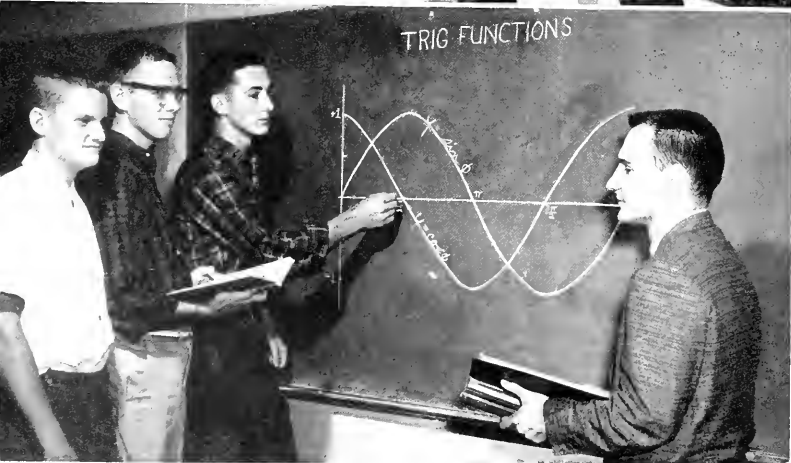

Library Club

To travel through the world of fiction and true-life adventure in books is the goal of the Library Club. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Black and Mrs. Morwick, the members learn how books are bound and shelved, how they are numbered, and how to find various information in the library. One of their many activities is to send two members each year to the Indiana University Library Workshop. There they learn how other school libraries function and also participate in at least two library courses. Sherry Thompson was B.O.O.K. Secretary for this year. Club officers are Sandy Hendricks, president; Mike Medlock, vice-president; Diane Carmichael, secretary; and Danny Riley, treasurer.

Astronomy Club

Man may never reach the stars; but if he does not, it will not be the fault of Southport's star-minded Astronomy Club. The Astronomy Club furthers interest and knowledge in this ancient science, which is becoming increasingly important in today's world of rockets and satellites. The ambitious project of the club is to design and build a twelve-inch telescope. Looking over the plans are Tom Brandenburg, president; Gary Van Deman, vice-president; Hermadine Clark, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Pickard, the club's sponsor.

Advanced Math Club

Each day with the growing emphasis on science, mathematics is becoming more important and vital in our lives. The Advanced Math Club is organized for the sole purpose of enabling members to advance themselves in the study of mathematics. In order to become a member of this club, one must submit a mathematical report or pass an examination.

The officers for this year are president, Paul Wycoff; vice-president, Robert Lewsader; secretary-treasurer, Clifford Whitaker. The sponsor of the club is Mr. Snapp.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y

As soon as the sponsor, Mrs. Reese, installs these officers of the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y, they will begin another active year. The club program includes participating in the annual Model United Nations, making donations to worthy organizations, and sponsoring a school sock hop. It is the obligation of each member to assist in fixing baskets of food for needy families, to make scrapbooks, to furnish tray decorations for hospitals, and to endeavor to serve her school, church, and community in every manner possible. The officers are Charlene Mason, president; Linda Cunningham, vice-president; Barbara Blubaugh, secretary; Vicki Davis, treasurer; Karene Hohlt, chaplain; and Judi Utterback, historian.

The Hi-Y

The four C's, Clean Speech, Clean living, Clean Sports, and Clean Scholarship, form the basis of this Christian organization opened to all boys regardless of race, creed, or religion. Throughout the year, the officers, Jack O'Brien, president; Mike Fisher, Alpha vice-president; Rick Anderson, Beta vice-president; Dave Steffey, treasurer; Harry Browning, Alpha secretary; Ed McCarty, Beta secretary; Don Dyson, Alpha chaplain; Roy Mallott, Beta chaplain; Stan Wrana, Alpha sergeant-at-arms; and Dale Wyatt, Beta sergeant-at-arms, help promote the club's many charitable activities. During the year, in the club's efforts to create, maintain, and extend the high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community, it participated in fund raising campaigns such as that for CARE.

Beta Tri-Hi-Y

One of the Christian service clubs of Southport is the Beta Tri-Hi-Y, whose motto is "pure words, pure thoughts, and pure deeds." This organization is open to all freshmen and sophomore girls who maintain average grades and have good character traits. The officers for this year are: Trudy McDaniel, president; Candy Percell, vice-president; Mary Ann Alspaugh, treasurer; Darlene Boatman, secretary; Kathy Butler, chaplain; Judy Pigg, historian; and Ann Koch, sergeant-at-arms.

Future Nurses Club

Field trips, guest speakers, films, and projects to aid various medical institutions are only a few of the many activities in which the Future Nurses Club participate. Sponsored by Mrs. Shirk and the school nurse, Mrs. Rund, the girls go to Indiana Central College for a field trip in the fall and plan another trip during the spring. The officers are Terry Hedges, president; Penny Nichols, vice-president; Sandy Keith, secretary-treasurer; Janice Perry, program chairman; Patty White, co-chairman; and Joyce Hurst, historian.

Senior-ority

Decorating the cafeteria in keeping with the seasons of the year and approaching holidays is one of the tasks undertaken by Senior-ority members. The girls also include decorating the rest of the school and collecting toys for needy children in their service.

Each junior and senior girl is eligible to join this club, but to earn membership she must sell two cans of candy or nuts. By means of the funds collected during this sale, the club is able to finance its own projects.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Penrod the officers, Nancy Howard, president; Suzanne Darko, vice-president; Christine Lowe, secretary; and Linda Cunningham, treasurer and the other members have accomplished much.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club, which is for those students who are striving to earn the points needed for membership in the National Thespians Society, is sponsored by Mrs. Kathleen Ritchie. The officers, Susan Swengel, president; Sandra Wilcox, vice-president; Sandra Sells, record clerk; and Sharon John, secretary-treasurer plan many interesting skits in which the other members participate. They mingle with their fun practical training.

German Club

VERSTEHEN UND VERSTANDEN WERDEN! To understand and to be understood! The German Club "Edelweiss", sponsored by Mrs. Megnis, studies the present and past living conditions of the German people, sings German songs, and has spelling bees and parties in German style. The officers are Bob Lewsader, president; Christine Lowe, vice-president; and Bonnie Bufe, secretary. German is a fairly new subject at Southport but is very popular among the students. The purpose of the group is to help others understand the German people—their ideals, customs, and cultures. By the end of the year, the members hope to have furthered their knowledge of this foreign country.

G. A. A.

Volleyball, swimming, basketball, tennis, and tumbling are offered by the G.A.A. in intramural competition. Tournaments are held and good sportsmanship as well as the will to win is stressed. Girls take part as officials in addition to being players. Other activities that keep the club busy are the Sweater Swirl, Turnabout, and the May Dance, honoring athletes at the end of the respective seasons.

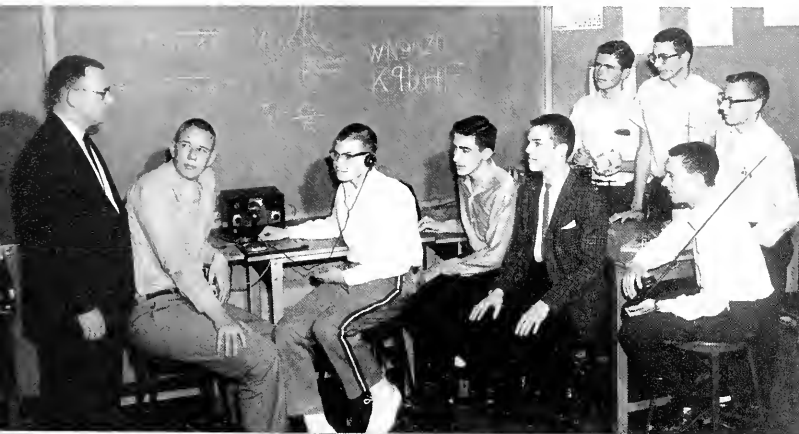

The officers ,president, Donna Moon; vice-president, Janice Miller; secretary, Patti Walker; and treasurer, Sandy Sells, watch a demonstration of tumbling skills. This year the club is sponsored by Mrs. Clappitt, Mrs. Schmidt, and Miss Isreal.

Chess Club

"Checkmate!—er—I think." This is as positive a statement as one can make when playing Kreig Spiele, a chess game in which the players do not know their opponents' moves. Playing in this manner aids in the development of chess skills, which is the primary objective of Southport's Chess Club. However, the game rules are usually more orthodox, much to the relief of the members. The club, besides contests between members, often has matches with other schools. Watching the match of wits between Gary Van Deman, president; and Mike Provost, vice-president; are Mr. Dart, sponsor; Carol Smith, secretary; and Bob Lewsader, treasurer.

Radio Club

The Radio Club of Southport High School was formed this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Lemen to advance an interest in the field of electronics and radio communication. Instruction in some areas of electronics and communication was begun with the intention of setting up a club transmitter at school in the near future. Officers are Mark Quebe, president; Steve Boggs, vice-president; Roy Circle, secretary; and Gary Boggs, treasurer.

Art Club

Anyone for Rembrandt, de Vinci, or Picasso? If so, join the Art Club. This newly formed organization is sponsored by Mr. Stough and headed by Joyce Ellis, president; Sandra Petrycki, vice-president; Kay Boone, secretary; Judith Ross, treasurer; and Meriam Sims, historian. The club's purpose is to further education in art appreciation by hearing speakers, visiting art galleries, and seeing movies. At Christmas the club made miniature Christmas trees from cellophane paper for the classrooms. Art students who have had one year of art and are especially interested in this field are eligible for membership.

Thespians

The officers of Thespians Troupe #1356 demonstrate the proper application of stage make-up. To be a member of the National Thespians Society of America, one must earn ten points, which represents one hundred hours of work in dramatic activities, and one must participate in at least one public performance such as the Senior Play or the Easter Sunrise Service. Membership is purely honorary and lasts for a lifetime.

Traffic Club

Because the enrollment of our school has increased so much in the last few years, the traffic club was formed. While we sit bundled up watching a football game or are inside the warm gym watching a basketball game in comfort, the traffic club is outside busily parking cars though it may be raining or snowing. Under the direction of Mr. Linson, the traffic club, consisting of about fifteen boys, helps relieve the problems created by so many cars at football and basketball games. They also direct traffic at the Easter Sunrise Service, Commencement, and other such activities. For their effort, these boys are given free admission to the athletic events.

Future Business Leaders Of America

Future Business Leaders of America has two purposes — to promote leadership among high school students and to make a better educational department.

F.B.L.A. introduces its members to opportunities available in the business world through speakers and discussion on various fields of employment.

F.B.L.A. has for the last six years operated a coat check room at the basketball games and sectionals. F.B.L.A. members also attend the state convention each spring at Ball State Teachers College.

This year Elwood Miller, sponsor was assisted by David Barnum. Officers were president, Carol Dampier; vice president, Jane Stevenson; secretary, Joann Day; treasurer, Susan Betzler; and reporter, Kathy Ball.

Junior Future Home Builders Of America

Girls enrolled in their first or second year of home economics who are interested in becoming better homemakers are eligible to join the Junior Future Home Builders Club. Under the Co-sponsorship of Mrs. Barren and Mrs. Campbell, home economics teachers, the members of this club plan and carry out each year at least one service project for the school or community. Each spring they take a trip to Purdue University to observe the home economics department, and the variety of equipment.

The officers, Brenda Loos, president; Margaret Steffey, vice president; and Carolyn Christoph, secretary-treasurer, are preparing to take toys, brought in by the members, to a mental hospital.

Cadet Teachers Club

To learn by doing is one of the best methods of learning, so cadet teachers spend their mornings at the various grade schools in Perry Township, performing such tasks as grading papers, reading stories, and conducting recreation.

This club, which also offers interviews with teachers and professors, special programs and projects, is open to sophmores, juniors, and seniors interested in the field of teaching. The officers under the able assistance of the club's new sponsor, Miss Penrod, are Kenny Nierman, president; David Steffay, vice-president; Donna McNierney, secretary; and Fred Fleetwood, treasurer.

Senior Future Home Builders Of America

The Senior Future Home Builders Club is for more advanced girls who are studying home economics. As well as each girl working on her own personal project, the entire club carries out one school service. This year the girls made cookies and put them in the teacher's mailboxes. The club uses the money it makes during the year to buy equipment for the home economics department and has donated such things as an electric mixer, coffee-master, sewing machines, and washer-dryer. The officers, Sharon Berger, president; Sue Burdine, vice-president; Joann Kramp, secretary; and Paula Krug, treasurer, are shown wrapping cookies.

French Club

Since the French language was added again to the curriculum, the French Club was re-organized in order to stimulate interest in the customs and history of France.

The highlight of the club's activities during the year was the Christmas party at which Professor Weber Donaldson, Jr. of DePauw University addressed the members. Displaying a French menu exhibit, learning the national anthem of France in French, working crossword puzzles in French, and journeying to a French restaurant were the other activities of the club.

Mrs. Martha-Belle Morgan is the sponsor and officers are Jon Thomas, president; Pat McMurray, vice-president; Charlene Bills, secretary; and Jeanie Brittan, treasurer.

Stagecrafters Club

The stagecrafters, under the direction of Mr. Hagedon and Jack Paul, their head technician, are capably in the art of lighting and prop handling. It is natural that they should be so, for they have added materially to the success of many of the school's activities, such as the senior play and the convocations. Theirs is a necessary and well-done job.

Outdoor Life Club

One of the favorite clubs of the boys in our school is the Outdoor Life Club. This club offers much to any boy interested in sports and the different phases of outdoor life. Under the leadership of Mr. Haviland, the sponsor, the boys are taught the many techniques of fishing, hunting, camping, and conservation. Every year the boys have many adventures on their various excursions. Last fall, the boys enjoyed a camping trip in Brown County. The officers are Dave Westerfield, president; Phil Marsh, vice-president; and Ralph Spilker, secretary-treasurer.

Future Farmers Of America

Farming is not, as some believe, a simple, uncomplicated profession. Today a farmer must be a businessman, chemist, mechanic, and agriculturist. The Future Farmers of America realize this, and one of their aims is to create better farmers. The members of Future Farmers, under the guidance of Mr. McCormick, are acquainted with much modern equipment and material which will enable them to become better farmers. The highlight of the year is the Father-Son Banquet, which the boys host for their fathers. The officers are Bill Weaver, president; Ron Saunders, vice-president; Gerald Frump, secretary; Bill Troxell, treasurer; and Eugene McGinnis, sentinel.

Advanced Latin Club

Many and varied are the activities of the Advanced Latin Club, since each meeting tries to emphasize that particular Roman month of the year.

With the money earned from the slave sale in the spring, the members participate in a Roman Banquet. Also during their regular meetings the members play Latin Bingo, present Roman myths, and learn many features of the Roman ways and customs of life. Bob Windhorst, consul; Penny Nichols, pro-consul; Karen Linson, quaestor; and Donna Brinkoetter, aedile, are the officers of the club whose sponsor is Mrs. Majors.

Photography Club

Those who are interested in taking pictures and in improving their pictures are usually members of the Beginning Photography Club. The Beginning Photography Club is for those who want to learn the techniques of taking good pictures, developing, and finishing them. The four officers are Shar-yn John, president; Dave Johnson, vice-president; Richard Prange, treasurer; and Claudia Cessna, secretary. Mr. Brown is sponsor for both clubs.

The purpose of the Advanced Photography Club is to increase experience by giving demonstrations for the beginning club. The officers are Larry Ford, president; Dennis Meredith, vice-president; Barbara Holton, secretary; and Eileen Newcomb, treasurer.

Dolphinettes

"America in the Swim" is the theme of the 1962 Water Show presented by the Dolphinettes. Typical scenes taken directly from the United States and from phases of its past make it the best exhibition ever performed by the club. In preparing for the show, Miss Israel, the sponsor, works many weeks in advance with the girls on skill rating which determines the group in which they swim for the performance. The president of the organization is the three time soloist, Susan Liddil; vice-president, Pam Young; secretary, Sandy Brink; and treasurer, Marty Hibner.

From playing with the children at recesses and eating with them at lunch to supervising their work, the cadet teachers gain valuable experience in the field of teaching

Pulchritude as well as efficiency has been added to our school this year in the form of Miss Kirkham, our school secretary.

Mrs. Weaver, with her assistant Larry Lynch, attends to the financial matters of the school.

Mrs. Majors, yearbook sponsor, and Elaine Wegehof, junior, admire an unusual Christmas tree made of mums.

The members of the Anchor Sales Staff sold stationery to help defray the expenses of the 1962 yearbook.

The four juniors on this year's staff include Georgia James, Elaine Wegehoff, Karen Linson, and Diane Carmichael.

Press We Must Go

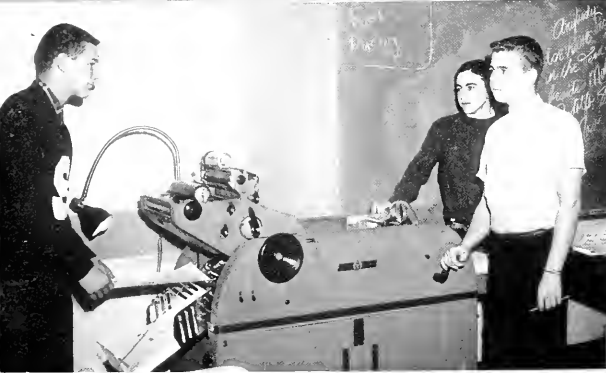

Members of the Anchor Staff appearing here are Kathy Euler, Joe Daniels, Phyllis Wetzell, Martha Coombs, Diane Carmichael, Karen Hollingsworth, Donna Montgomery, and Charlene Mason.

Keep The Presses

Donna Kenyon, Mary Jo Barker, Vickie Roth, Judi Fox, Lynn Coker, and Georgia James serve as columnists, editors, and reporters of the advanced class.

Pressmen Bob Humbles, Dave Woerner, and Skip Engle demonstrate the function of the new offset printing press.

Mr. John Higbee, advisor, Larry Ford, sports editor, Patti Walker, assistant managing editor, Karen Shepherd, news editor, Jeanne Oberholtzer, business manager, Dale Wyatt, managing editor, and Sandy Sells, editor-in-chief, discuss the coming week's issue.

Rolling !!

A Student Directory was published this year containing the names and addresses of all S.H.S. students. Those responsible were Winnie Eads, Lynn Bland, Dave Davidson and Phyllis Hughes.

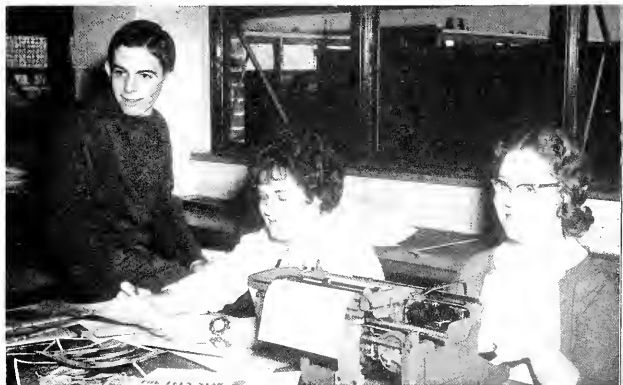

Steve Powell, Susie Betzler, Steve Powers, and Carol Stroup work on editing the signpost, the information guide of the school for the students.

The Melodies

Boys Octet

Singing for P.T.A. and also Father and Son banquets are a few of the activities performed by these eight boys. This group features Mike Krodle, Mike Fisher, Jim VanMeter, Steve Higgs, Dave Underwood, Larry Smith, Tom Pickerel, Vaughn Harrison, and alternate Jim Whisler. The octet was accompanied by Judi Utterback at the District Solo and Ensemble Contest; they received a second place.

Orchestra

The orchestra under the direction of Bill Schmalfeldt participates in many activities throughout the school year. The Christmas program, Easter Sunrise Service, and Baccalaureate services are activities in which the orchestra participates. They also perform in the Spring Music Festival and the Mid-State Orchestra contest.

The orchestra is composed of members of the concert band and string section. Officers for this year are president, Marguerite Thomas; vice-president, Linda Link; secretary, Ann Gates; treasurer, Judi Utterback; and librarian, Sharon Klatte.

of 1962

Girls Sextet

These girls were selected from the Advanced Choir for tone quality and blend. The members, Judith Utterback, Fran Merrett, Dianne Todd, Marcia Coates, Karen Dyer, and Theresa Utterback, attended the District Solo and Ensemble Contest where they acquired a first place.

The group advanced to the State Contest to receive a second place.

Mixed Octet

Dave Underwood, June Linkel, Mike Fisher, Ann Trimpe, Mary Jo Barker, Mike Krodel, Jackie McGahey, and Mike Williams are the members of the mixed octet. This group participates in several programs throughout the school year; some of which are P.T.A. and various church organizations. Accompanied by Judith Utterback and Susie Trotter, the group took part in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest and received a second place rating.

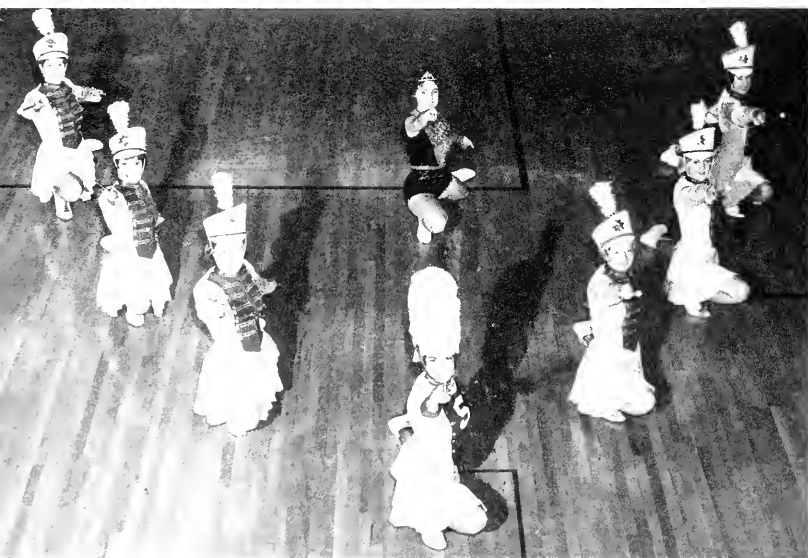

Choir

This musical organization provides musical accompaniment throughout the year for the many religious programs, such as the annual Easter Sunrise Service, given by the school. During the spring the choral group participates in the annual festival composed of most of the Marion County schools. Future plans for presenting an operetta are in the making. The officers include Mike Fisher, president; Mike Krodel, vice-president, Susie Trotter, secretary; and Sharon Resner, treasurer.

Our Proud Marching

Being a good majorette requires skill, training, precision, and hours of hard work. Hard work is nothing new to these eight girls who, headed by drum major-ette Barbara Kappmeyer, have put many hours of practice into their routines. Some of the many public appearances they have made were in the Christmas parade, the Madison Avenue Business parade, and the Indiana State Fair. A new position of Feature Twirler was added to the corps this year and is held by junior, Karen O'Hoolle. In the spring work will begin again; and the girls will work to perfect the shows which they have scheduled to perform in the summer. They have aimed for accuracy and have proven themselves successful.

Band Goes On Review

The band practiced all summer before competing in the band contest held annually at the State Fairgrounds in August and early September. Southport marched off with the fifth place trophy.

Band officers are: Barbara Kappmeyer, drum major-ette; Dick Rodebaugh, captain; Steve Bennett, first lieutenant; Steve Schultz, second lieutenant; and Larry Smith, master sergeant.

"Practice makes perfect" is just one of the mottos of Southport's flag corps, the Cardinalettes. The girls spend many hours preparing for performances with the band at football games, marching contests, parades, and last but not least the fascinating half-time shows during the basketball games. A choreographer from Butler University works with the girls while planning routines.

Cheerleaders

Victory, Victory is our cry! V-I-C-T-O-R-Y! At the head of the vibrant Red and White spirit were this year's yell leaders. Leading yells at the games and pep sessions, organizing the Pep Club, and directing school spirit are duties of our cheerleaders. This year's tremendous school spirit flourished under their leadership.

Leading our reserve and freshman team yells this year were Vonda Hooper, Ca ro l Wischmyer, and Cheryl Bogard.

Our varsity cheerleaders are Emily Bogard, Gayle Fisher, Dave Woerner, Chris Salge, and Sharon Ford.

Coach McDaniel, Bill Troxell, Rick Anderson, John Payne, Larry Norris, Terry Volpp.

Mercury Men

Coach McDaniel again guided his cross-country team to a fine season. Cross-country is a very exhausting sport in which the participants run over a two mile course against time and other contestants. The scoring of cross-country differs from most other sports in that the team with the low score is the victor. Led by junior Pat McMurray, who placed first in the South Central Conference Meet, and senior Dick Fountain, who placed fourth in the state, the team captured four dual meets, second in the Washington Invitational, second in the Howe Invitational, second in the County Meet, first in the South Central Conference, second in the Sectional, and fifth in the State Meet at South Grove.

Gridiron Greats

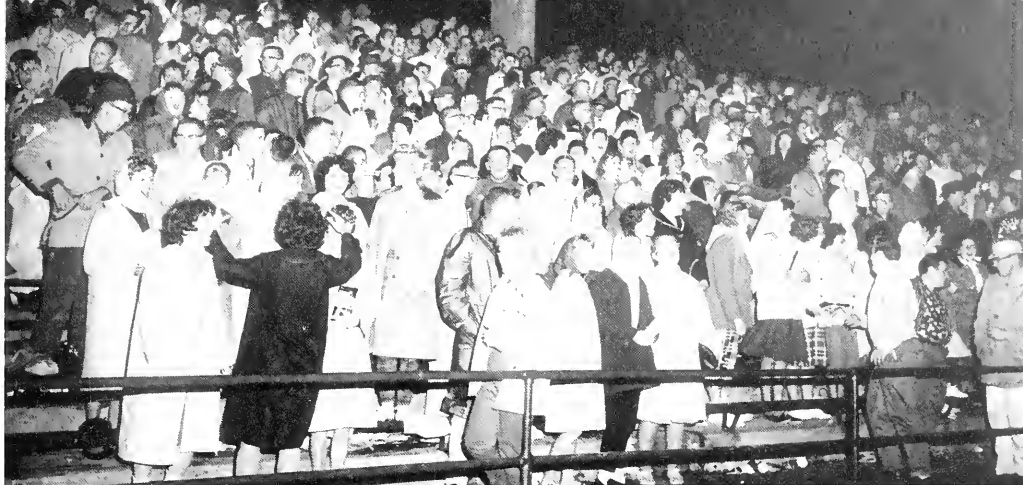

Under the leadership of new head coach Chuck Robbins, our football team compiled a very respectable eight wins, one loss, and one tie record for the season. The rulers of the gridiron had no trouble switching from the T-formation used in past years to the Single Wing formation used by Coach Robbins. In the first four games the team overwhelmed opposition with a total of 131 points, an average of 33 points a game. The Cards defensive team earned the rare honor of not allowing the opposition to cross their goal line until the fifth game of the season. The sportswriters of the state consider the team good by placing the Fighting Cards in the top ten team in the state in their weekly polls.

These sports enthusiasts are avid fans of Southport football as they brave the cold to cheer our team in trials as well as triumphs. The stands were filled and overflowing at every home game. An attendance record for a home game was set at this year's Manual game, when over 7000 fans cheered our Cards to victory.

"Put a band-aid on, and run it off" . . . "Blood and water make the grass grow" . . . "O K, boys, fifty minutes of L. C. T. A" are expressions that were heard over the gridiron during the football season. These phrases were the basis and encouragement for hard work that guided our varsity to victory. Reaching the goal of victory was made possible by a hard working coaching staff. Making up this staff were Marvin Hawkins, Richard Schrier, Dave Bertram, William Bane, and head coach Chuck Robbins. Due credit can be expressed by each and every one of us toward another group of Southport's best.

Hardwood Hustlers

The cries of "Conference Champs," "County Champs," and "Sectional Champs," echoed through the halls of Southport as our Mighty Cards battled their way to an impressive record of 26 wins and only 2 losses. The Cards started slow, winning their first four games over Center Grove, Franklin, South Side Fort Wayne, and Tech unimpressively. After their only regular season loss to Seymour 60-58 in an overtime, the Redbirds came alive blasting Jeffersonville 91-38 and Greensburg 81-39. The team continued winning and compiled a winning streak of twenty-two straight games. In the sports writers weekly polls the team was ranked as 2nd in the final poll. The school indeed is proud of the accomplishments of this year's fine team.

Southport played host to its fourth sectional tournament, and the gigantic fieldhouse served the occasion very well. Southport's co-favored Cardinals advanced to the afternoon game with little trouble. A good Franklin Central club scared the Redbirds, but after a determined fight, the Redbirds emerged victorious enabling them to meet co-favorite Washington for the title. Washington, lucky in the draw and having had an easy time with preliminary foes, were primed and ready. The final game was a hair-raising, see-saw battle which had a crowd of 7,500 people on its feet and screaming. The Cards proved victorious with a 67 to 59 victory. Southport then journeyed to the Indianapolis Regional where they coupled rugged rebounding and a tight defense to whip a good Plainfield team 70-47, earning themselves the right to compete in the finals against a determined Anderson team that had defeated Crispus Attucks in the afternoon game. The game was a close hard fought battle with both teams hitting a phenomenal percentage of their shots. When the final gun sounded, the score Southport 57, Anderson 59, the careers of five Cardinals ended, but not before they had carried Southport's banner to the final 32 teams in the state.

The largest organization at Southport, the Booster Club, is responsible for the fine school spirit that was displayed this year. Under the supervision of Mr. Schmalfeldt, the club sponsors pep sessions, skits, announcements concerning athletic events, and posters which appear in the halls before all games. The officers of the club are Bob Adams, president; Mary Ann Soloman, secretary-treasurer; and Larry Smith, vice-president.

RACQUET SQUAD

With no outstanding player, but with determination, drive, and hard work our 1961-62 tennis team under the direction of Coach Swank compiled a respectable 14 wins, 4 losses season. Included in the victories were County Championship and an important victory over arch-rival North Central. The victory over North Central enabled Southport to win the Times All-Sports Trophy. With several underclassmen on the team, Coach Swank is eagerly looking forward to next season.

GOLF

With two lettermen, a rough schedule, and past tradition in mind, Coach Braden's golf team embarked on the 1961 season with high hopes. The team participates in the fall and in the spring of the school year. In the fall, the team competes in the South Central Conference golf meet. In the spring, we have a schedule of dual and triangular meets plus the Marion County Golf Tourney, and the Sectional Golf Tourney. The leaders of this year's team were Steve Hoffman, Guy Perry, and Larry May.

Steve Bennett, the team's relief ace, flashes his form which earned him five victories.

Senior on this year's team are shown with Coach Thiel. They are B. Bennett, B. Poynter, P. Houston, S. Christ, J. Seay, E. Carr, L. Heck, W. Dean.

The baseball team, loaded with lettermen at every position, lived up to pre-season expectations by compiling a season record of 17 wins and only one loss. The team finished strong winning its last 11 games and capturing the County Tourney. The team's lone loss was at the hands of undefeated Connersville for the South Central Conference Championship. The team was lead by pitchers Steve Bennett, five wins and no losses; Wilber Dean, five wins and no losses; and Jerry Seay, four wins and one loss. The team's victory in the County Championship earned valuable points for the Times All-Sports Trophy.

TRACK

Our cindermen gained enthusiasm and added skill through the efforts of hard-working Coach Hathaway, and climaxed the season with a first place in the Sectional.

The Cards won all four dual meets in addition to capturing first place in the South Central Conference, first in the Ben Davis Relays, third in the County, first in the Jr. Invitational, and first in the Sectional at Washington.

Leading last year's team were half-miler Larry Keene who placed fifth in the State and miler Chuck Branch who placed fourth in the State.

Grueling Grapplers

Under the guidance of Coach McDaniel and Coach Bane, the 1961-62 Southport grapplers again produced a fine season. The team compiled a respectable record of 10 wins and only one loss, plus being runner-up in the County Tourney, 1st in the Sectional, and fifth in the Regional. The team advanced nine boys from the Sectional into the Regional, but Dave Westerfeld was the only survivor of Regional Competition. Dave was runner-up in the state for the second year.

Because of the varied program and wide assortment of G.A.A. activities, sports heads were chosen to direct competition in the different fields.

The girls this year had an expanded program of intramural athletics directed by the G.A.A. Volleyball, basketball, rumbling, swimming, tennis, and track are some of the divisions of the varied activities. Sponsors were Mrs. Clappitt, Mrs. Schmidt, and Miss Isreal.

Whether it is building a pyramid or playing basketball, the girls enjoy themselves in the activities of the G.A.A.

The Officials' Club of the G.A.A. supervises and referees the various sports. Under the direction of Mrs. Schmidt, the club held meetings to discuss officiating and rule changes.

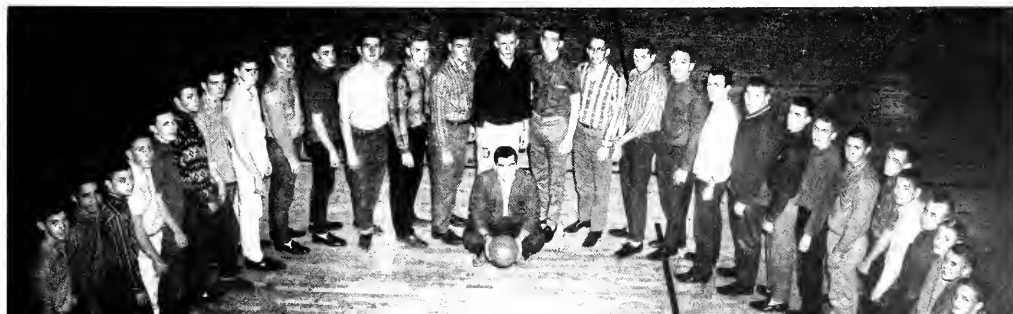

Intramurals

This year's intramural sports program attracted more than 400 participants in basketball and swimming. The boys organized their own teams and under the direction of Chuck Robbins enjoyed the opportunity to compete. The competition was hard fought, but everyone had fun.
